Welcome to Sanver Production World!

Our activity is focused on the wide entertainment sector. It's more than five years that we especially work in the television sector, through an accurate TV Series, CD and Home Video distribution; besides our company is specializing in Italian Dubbing of many kinds of audiovisual products.

We take care of every aspect of the distribution, that could be direct and/or on behalf of third parties.

We've grown step by step until our latest and significant success, so we decided to increase our offers towards our international clients. Mission: be essential in the Television & Entertainment market, keeping our original passion always turned on.

Below we're going to show you Sanver Production Ltd, a young and dynamic team able to work at international levels.

TELEVISION

Sanver Production creates and produces TV shows, our core business is headed to the Kids television timeframe. We have a successful TV program from years that's called Contactoons (you can visit the website www.contactoons.it) and we're in Syndication TV. Through our program we hand out various famous TV Series, in collaboration with great and important producers that rely on us their TV products broadcasting in order to get added purposes: merchandising development and product positioning.

Led by Santo Verduci, well known singer of many cartoons theme songs, this TV show has been planned to be functional but also funny and soft, becoming a benchmark for the destined-to-kids TV. Plus there is Biribì, another format still in production that's going to be dedicated to the 0-7 years target.

Your company may think about this kind of collaboration as well, working on a television and commercial incorporation of your products.

DUBBING

Sanver Production holds a qualified cast of Italian dubbers that have worked on several types of products. Our structure allows to carry out the TV Series Italian Edition under technical aspects: we handle audio mix process, subtitles transcription, and of course acting recording using a various voice range, in order to provide you a complete product that could match your needs. Types of products dubbed: cartoons, TV series, movies, live action, doc, videogames, ecc. Our staff includes long experienced names of the wide Italian dubbing sector.

Current collaborations: Netflix, Oriental Cine Service, Baby TV, Medusa Video, Sky, Hasbro, Sanrio, Mediaset, Rai, Mondo TV. Sanver Production collaborates with very reliable partners in order to achieve a high quality localization in various languages. (You can find other information on www.sanverproduction.com - dubbing section).

MUSIC & HOME VIDEO

Sanver Production is a recor label: it manages the delivery process; finds and produces artists; takes care of products management and placement, focusing the attention on their trade, editorial and promotional development.

Directly from Contactoons successful ratings, we had the possibility to create two compilations: Contactoons and Santo Verduci, among cartoons and TV. They both include original cartoons theme songs made for Italian and foreign market. We write and create TV commercial jingles, besides cinema & TV soundtracks.

We're always connected to our audience. Their suggestions and requests pushed us to increase our content offers with the Home Video section: DVD and Blu-ray distribution of the most successful TV Series transmitted by Contactoons.

LICENSING & DISTRIBUTION

Sanver Production acquires TV Series delivery licenses, introducing them in the broadcast market under its partners, official channels and merchandising lines.

We've developed a great experience under this aspect: we're able to make and produce all the merchandising related to a specific TV Series. The Contactoons brand presents these kinds of product: CD, DVD, T-shirts, gadgets, ecc.

We work for your greater impact on market, for a constant and promotional presence on television.

ADVERTISING

Sanver Production is glad to announce the new advertising section.

Contactoons has grown through these years and this fact convinced us to choose the Advertising Agency structure, so we could set up TV/radio/publishing/online commercials.

Our clients portfolio is international, especially with regard to the kids timeframe.

Being present on streaming and on digital terrestrial platform enables our program to look after your products placement. We manage the advertising of various and known weekly/daily italian magazines.

Plus we are social: through our social network channels we can work on the product communication and promotion by planning aimed events.

TOYS

Two white line-art icons: two dice and a teddy bear.

As mentioned before, Merchandising is another important aspect that Sanver Production deals with.

The fans of some TV series have observed that several producers don't create action figures or any kind of gadget in an accurate way to their expectations; on the basis of surveys and long market tests, Sanver Production's gadgets implementation and spreading got a positive and appreciated response.

By acquiring your license we get able to produce, directly or by the use of our partners, toys and gadgets taken from the TV series and/or other properties, ensuring a market placement.

SANVER PRODUCTION

ACADEMY

Sanver Production has its own academy heading to prepare and place talents, actors, dubbers, singers in this job sector.

In this way the company has given its contribution to the professionals increase and improvement, allowing their direct integration in our own artistic cast.
